You are invited to attend the 3rd Annual University of Sydney TESOL Research Network Colloquium. The Colloquium will be held at the Faculty of Education and Social Work on Saturday 20 September, 2008.

The University of Sydney TESOL Research Network Colloquium aims to provide a forum to discuss and share research in the area of TESOL as well as to encourage future research collaborations in this area. The Colloquium is a place where both new and established TESOL researchers can network.

This year TESOL Colloquium features two keynote speakers, a plenary speaker and numerous TESOL and TESOL-related researchers. The sessions are on a wide range of TESOL and TESOL-related research both in progress and completed. Each session consists of 25-minute paper presentations (including 5 minutes discussion).

Keynotes Speakers

Professor Chris Davison, The University of New South Wales: “Action Research as an Agent of Change: School-based English Language Assessment in Hong Kong”

Dr Robyn Moloney, The University of Sydney: “Intercultural Competence in Young Language Learners: A Doctoral Experience”

Plenary Speaker

Sarah Bedford, The University of Sydney: “From teacher to researcher: Turning ELT experience into a PhD project”
