About FQ

The Mission

The FQ project is a SIFE initiative created by a University of Sydney student team. Our purpose is to generate the public awareness of financial planning knowledge (FQ) as a life-long skill and increase the financial literacy of the general public, in particular international students.

Our Pathway to Success (IEC ³)

The FQ project team firmly believes in the following five values will be incorporated in all our planning and operations:

1. Innovation
2. Environmental sustainability
3. Cultural sensitivity
4. Co-learning
5. Community based
