Position Title: Associate Professor in Literacy.

Position Number: 111851.

Selection Criteria

Essential

- A relevant doctoral qualification or equivalent accreditation and standing.

- A record of academic or professional achievement of national and/or international standing through outstanding contributions to the field of literacy education.

- Substantial track record of quality publications, projects and grants in areas related to the research priorities of the Faculty.

- Demonstrated specialist knowledge of literacy/ English curriculum and pedagogy across K-6 continuum.

- Ability to provide leadership and coordinate the teaching of subjects in the primary and secondary programs both on campus, in distance education mode and mixed modes cross campuses.

- Effective interpersonal/ communication skills and capacity to work effectively with colleagues, students and community, individually, or as a member of a team.

- Ability to integrate the use of ICT for teaching, learning and assessment within the tertiary environment, and to effectively model its use in children’s literacy learning.

- Knowledge or and ability to apply occupational, health and safety, and equal employment opportunity principles.

- Ability to provide leadership in research in literacy across the faculty.

Desirable

- Leadership in the profession, through work with Professional Associations, Employers or Educations systems.

- Recent professional engagement with Schools, Classrooms and /or Teachers around literacy education.