4th University of Sydney TESOL Research Network Colloquium

TESOL Research Network, Faculty of Education and Social Work, The University of Sydney, Australia

September 5, 2009

CALL FOR PAPERS

Papers
- A 25-minute paper presentation (20 minutes presentation; 5 minutes discussion)
- Please submit as an attachment a Word document (TESOL2009yoursurname.doc) including a title, a 250 word-abstract, a 50-word summary of the abstract and presenter information to Aek Phakiti at a.phakiti@edfac.usyd.edu.au
- Submission deadline: Friday 14 August 2009

Keynote Speakers

Kieran O’Loughlin, The University of Melbourne
“But aren’t IELTS results the most trustworthy?: Issues in the English language assessment of international students for entry to Australian higher education”

Brian Paltridge and Wei Wang, The University of Sydney
“Analyzing genre: Drawing perspectives together”

Lynette May, Queensland University of Technology
“Developing listening and speaking assessment tasks that reflect “the social turn” in language testing”